A TALE OF A GROUND HOG
His little black eyes peered cautiously out for a look at the bright, bright sky. He shivered a bit, as he looked about. Then sighed. Oh well, oh my!

As he gazed at the sky of such beautiful blue. He gave a terrible sneeze. And remarked, "I think I am catching the flu. And I'm chilled by this brisk north breeze."

Then he said, with a shake of his little brown head. "I didn't get up until noon. But I think I'll go back to my cozy warm bed. Perhaps I shall sleep until June."

WATERFORD
One of the events which takes place in our little village and which is always looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure, is the installation of Keoka Chapter, O. E. S. This was held on Friday, at noon, a bountiful dinner was served to members and their families and several invited guests, after which came the ceremony of installing the officers, the work being done by Mrs. Blanche Tyler.

E. L. Stone kindly volunteered to run a "bus" between Waterford and South Waterford on Friday, thus furnishing a stallion, who might otherwise have had to remain at home unless they were able to walk.

Mrs. F. B. Rounds has been a "shut-in" for a few days, on account of a severe cold, and has been unable to attend to her work in the postoffice and store.

E. R. Rounds went to Portland with Ralph Knight, on Saturday, where they attended the automobile show.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Littlefield and Mrs. Harry Allen and two children of Hartson were in town on Friday to attend the Eastern Star installation.

The School of Religious Instruction was held at the Community House on Wednesday evening and was very interesting and instructive. The attendance was not quite as large as usual, owing to illness and cold weather. A light lunch was served at intermission, after which lantern slides of views in different parts of Maine were shown.

Miss Lenora Edgecomb has been spending a few days in Harrison and Bridgton.

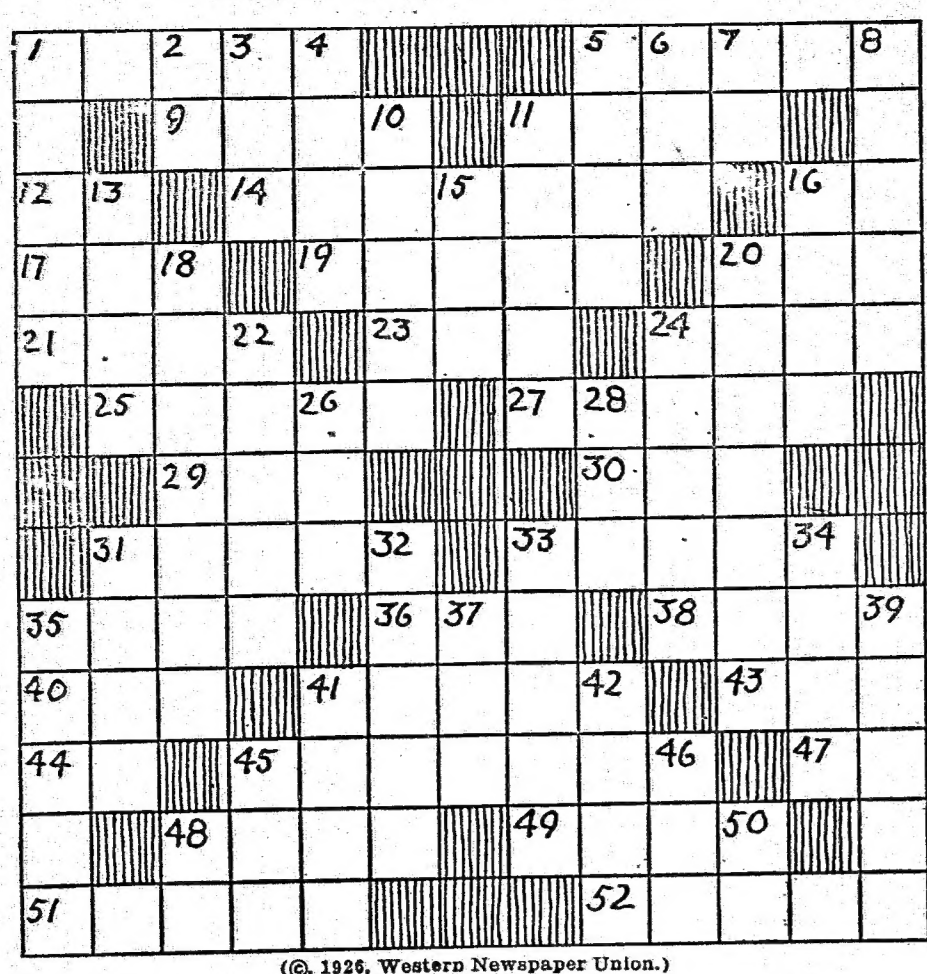

We have prompt and efficient delivery service in winter, by Junior Rounds and his faithful dog, "Barrie," who is well broken to harness, and who carries many orders of groceries to the inhabitants of the village. The dog teams are an interesting sight and the dogs enjoy the sport as well as their masters.

Alma Bancroft is working at Dr. R. E. Hubbard's.

On Friday afternoon, Orla Gardner invited the members of the school to assist her in celebrating her thirteenth birthday and a merry party of thirteen, including the young ladies and her sister and brother, gathered at Orla's home. A few indoor games were played, but the bright sun and the excellent sliding were too tempting, so most of the afternoon was spent in out-of-door sports. Christine Gardner assisted her mother in serving delicious refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, punch, cake, ice cream, fudge and a beautiful birthday cake. All voted it a most delightful party.

Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard accompanied Mrs. Lyde Johnson and her cousin, Olive Little, to Portland, on Saturday. On Monday, they took Will Jordan to the C. M. G. Hospital at Lewiston.

Tired and Achy Mornings?

DOES morning find you stiff, achy—"all worn out"? Do you feel tired and drowsy—suffer nagging backache, headache and dizzy spells? Are the kidneys scarcely scanty and burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Users everywhere endorse Doan's. Ask your neighbor

I. Jesus Preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God (Mark 1:14, 15).

1. The theme of John the Baptist was still the voice of the messenger.

2. What He preached.

It was the gospel of the kingdom of God. Since "gospel" means "good news," the good news which He preached was that Christ had come to establish His kingdom.

3. How He preached.

He said, "Repent, for the kingdom is at hand." The King was then ready to set up His kingdom if the Jews would receive Him.

II. Jesus Pictures Four Classes of Hearers (Mark 4:1-11).

1. The place—the seed—(v. 1).

He was obliged to enter a boat to escape the pressure of the crowd.

2. Why He taught in parables (vv. 9-12).

It was not until the rulers had set their hearts against Him that He employed the parabolic method.

3. The parable of the four kinds of ground (vv. 3-8; 13-20).

Observe that the seed and the sower are the same in all these instances, but the results are entirely different, determined by the condition of the soil.

(1) The Wayside (vv. 4, 15).

The wayside means the track beaten by the hoofs of animals and the feet of men. Because the soil was unbroken and uncultivated the seed could not get beneath the surface, therefore was devoured by fowls, which represent the agents of Satan (v. 15).

(2) The stony ground (vv. 5, 6, 16, 17).

Stony ground means stones with a thin layer of soil upon them. Under such conditions the seed springs up quickly and is soon scorched because it has no much depth.

(3) The thorny ground (vv. 7, 18, 19).

In this case the ground is good, but has thorns in it. It is mellow and has depth, but it has not been cleaned of the thorns. The thorny ground hearers of this age are: (a) Those who are so immersed in worldliness, business and anxious care that the good seed cannot mature; (b) those who are rich. The effect of riches is to blind the spiritual perceptions; (c) those who are running after the pleasures of life. All these things choke the Word.

4. The good ground (vv. 8, 20).

This ground differs from all the rest. It is soft and mellow, deep and moist, therefore is capable of bringing forth fruit in varying degrees of abundance.

III. Jesus Pictures the Growth of the Kingdom (Mark 4:21-34).

1. The parable of the candle (vv. 21-25).

The bushel stands for the cares and material things of life, and the bed for ease and comfort.

2. The parable of the growing grain (vv. 26-29).

(1) The attitude of mind of the gospel preacher (vv. 26, 27).

He should with the utmost fidelity cast seed into the ground, preach the Word, and leave results to God.

(2) The processes of the spiritual life are gradual (v. 28). It is "first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear."

(3) The consummation of the spiritual process (v. 29).

Despite the difficulty under which sowing is done, we can be assured of a harvest time.

3. The parable of the mustard seed (vv. 30-34).

(1) The unimportant beginning (v. 31).

(2) Its vigorous growth (v. 32).

The greatest power on earth today is that which had its inception in the preaching of the gospel.

(3) Its lodging capacity (v. 32).

The birds which lodge in the branches represent the children of the evil one who find protection and food in that which was inaugurated by Jesus Christ.

Business Good in Town—Jim Plummer Injured Knee—Cooks for Nine in Family.

Business seems to be good in town, just now. The mills are running pretty good. The roads are good, autos run about the same as in summer, when the roller goes.

Double Action Medicine

Stops Stubborn Coughs

Here is a real medicine long the standard of doctors for coughs and colds. You can count on it to stop the toughest of old die-hard coughs. It's used in the most persistent cases when coughs must be stopped and stopped quick.

It is called Adamson's Balsam. Acts in two ways to end the cough and if it doesn't you can have your money back.

First it breaks up the phlegm, soothes the inflamed membrane and gives the throat muscles a chance to expel the phlegm. That stops your racking cough, and like a healing poultice it takes the soreness out of the delicate throat lining.

Other elements not found in ordinary sweet, sugary syrups go into the system through the blood and attack the germs right at the seat of trouble and in a day or two every trace of danger is gone.

Adamson's Balsam contains no dope, dangerous drugs or chloroform. It's wonderful for children. It certainly stops coughs—Easy ones in a dose or two—Hard ones in a day or two. Two sizes, 35c and 75c.

NORTH HARTFORD

Surprise Party

A surprise party was given in honor of the birthday of Elroy Russell on Monday evening at the Grange Hall. It was attended by nearly 100 guests who met to show their appreciation of his 32 years of faithful service as rural mail carrier.

Mr. Russell reached the age of retirement two years ago, but the limit was extended and now, at the age of 67, he is through.

An entertainment of music and poems was held. W. H. Eastman, former postmaster, reading an original poem, "Our Mail Man," the manuscript of which was presented to him.

Our Mail Man
Who faithful courier without fail
In sunshine, shadow, rain or hail,
Brings to our doors the daily mail,
The mail man.

He comes and goes with the score,
Of parcels post galore,
Who drops them at our door?
The mail man.

Through April's muddy, mucky street,
Pattering July heat,
He trudges on his beat
The mail man.

Our errands well attended,
Often kind assistance lends,
He makes his patrons all his friends
The mail man.

Never grumbles, kicks or knocks,
No will he might be grumpy,
He patters in the box?
The mail man.

Without thought or fear,
He keeps the pace, it now appears,
And of these one and twenty years!
The mail man.

Now to our sincere regret,
His business must resign,
His service shall we never forget
The mail man.

From tonight as friend to friend
We bid him adieu without end!
The mail man.

The Lady Hikers of Lovell

Showing They Have Some Strange Ideas But Get There All the Same

"The Jound One", is pleased to see that the Ladies' Hiking Club of Lovell is not only full of pep, but wit as well.

"More Wit and less Work" is our own motto. Nevertheless it is sad to find that the club's champion was a little impulsive in some of her utterances recently.

Take for instance the matter of oaths about the golf course. But, but, surely she exaggerated here. The sounds that rebound from the surrounding hills may sound suspicious but you should never believe half you hear. I am frank to admit that I have witnessed many and sights on the course, but the atmosphere has ever seemed sweet and clean. I will remember one elderly gentleman taking three swipes at the ball without disturbing it in the least, though the surrounding air was filled with flying sod, and he seemed quite disturbed over the matter, and though he said a great many things most of which sounded like a foreign language to me, he did not swear.

As to the respectable citizens who stood gaping and failed to tip their hats at the sight of the tramping ladies, what man can tip his hat when winter fashions are what they are? Some of the hats worn around here must stay on all winter, night and day. You might as well expect a man to wave his scalp as his hat these days.

Anyway, slipping the hat, since the emancipation of woman (though I have yet to read of the time in history when man wasn't the underdog) is merely a gesture. Respect for glorious womanhood is shown by something more sound than uncovering a bald pate to the rigors of winter.

But most of all, I must take issue with the advice that more men should leave their stoves and fireplaces to venture forth into the fresh air. Fresh air, indeed! For several winters I have hunted all over the house trying to find a spot where there was something besides fresh air.

If I ever find a square yard of nice warm stale air, I will nail it to the floor and move in. Fresh air is full of mean tricks and the fresher it is, the meaner it gets. Even the almanacs will tell you that every town in the United States has a mean temperature, and you can take it from me that wherever there is a mean temperature, there is fresh air and a lot of it. No, indeed, don't think you have to leave the house to get fresh air around these parts.

However, as I have said before, we are all delighted with the pep and vitality of these ladies. (And right here I wish to mention the fate of the fellow who coined the phrase "Clumsy Club". He'll find that that will be a boomerang that will wrap itself around his neck more than once.) More and more they will be a source of inspiration to the community, even if a few of us do burst a chrysalis or two, and just the other day they performed a good deed, a solid formation they started down the road to the Town Meeting. Now it so happens that the official groundhog for this section of the country lives just off the main road near Alder Brook. That morning he had studied his calendar and found it was the day for him to come out and see his shadow, and if there is anything that Pa groundhog likes to see, it is his shadow.

For it means a few more weeks of sleep for him. So he crept minkin' out of his hole. But he only got half way out. There was a queer rumble in the air and looking down the road he saw the girls coming. Tramp, tramp, tramp the girls were marching. Pa groundhog gave one blink and dove back into his hole too scared over to come out again. He never got a chance to see his shadow. Winter will be short and sweet and all because the Ladies' Hiking Club came around the corner just in the nick of time. Who says we don't love 'em?

ANNOUNCEMENT

For two sessions, I have been a member of the House of Representatives of the Maine Legislature. It has been a custom in our state for persons with such service to be given a term or so in the Senate. It is my ambition to represent the people of Oxford County as their Senator at the next session.

My interest, not only in my town and Oxford County, but in the state at large, is well known. If given a chance to represent Oxford County in the Senate, I shall exercise the same watchful care in regard to the interests of my constituents. I favor the conservation of Maine's resources, the development of the state, not only its summer business and its manufacturing enterprises, but our farming sections, as well. I am for the enforcement of the laws and for Maine's time honored policy.

I shall be a candidate before the Republican Primaries in June. If nominated and elected, I shall stand for the policies of the Party, for economy as represented in wise expenditure and shall lose no opportunity to do whatever I can in the interests of agriculture, education, and the general up-building of our state for the welfare of our people. I shall appreciate the support of the people in this campaign.

CARL C. DUDLEY, Bryant Pond, Maine
